SAINT TURIBIUS of MOGROVEJO
 (1538 – 1606)
 Patron of Native Rights'
 Feast Day – March 23

The new archbishop of Lima, Peru, Turibius undertook to travel throughout the rugged and mountainous diocese, where he observed many of the worst effects of colonialism – both upon the enslaved and oppressed natives, and on many of the colonists who seemed to have lost their souls in the pursuit of wealth.

He responded with constant prayer and penance, as he traveled throughout his territory administering the sacraments, teaching the Catholic faith, and establishing schools, seminaries and hospitals.

To the indigenous Peruvians, the archbishop was a herald of the Gospel who held their lives as more precious than their country's supplies of gold and silver. But to many colonists he was a prophetic scourge – whose efforts to awaken the public conscience earned him rebukes and opposition.

Turibius managed to make three visitations of his diocese, under rugged and dangerous conditions, which occupied about half of his 25 years as Archbishop of Lima. He united the Peruvian Church at an administrative level by holding several local councils of its clergy, but was also known to spend days traveling to reach a single individual with the message of Christ.

The archbishop became seriously ill in 1606. He sensed that his death was imminent, and decreed that his possessions should be distributed to the poor. St. Turibius died on March 23, and his body was found to be incorrupt the next year. He was declared a saint in 1726, and is regarded as the patron of native peoples' rights.

CATHOLICISM STUDY PROGRAM

Do you feel like you need to understand your faith better? Do you feel like you need to be able to defend your faith?

This is the study for you.

You are invited to join your fellow parishioners for the Catholicism series presented by Bishop Robert Baron.

This amazing study will consist of a 12 week course which will focus on the church formed by Jesus Himself, the Roman Catholic faith. You will be transformed when you watch and engage others with the Church's amazing history, and feel a sense of awe as you experience your own dynamic walk through time.

The weekly study will be offered beginning the Monday after Easter, April 2nd at 6:30 on Monday nights. Registration will be held in the church office. Please sign up early so we know how many study books we will need to order. Thank you and I hope you come and bring friends!

The study will be facilitated by Lori Dahlstrom.

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Holy Mass when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive our Eucharistic Lord devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Him, the communicant should not be conscious of grave sin and should have fasted for one hour prior to reception. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior Sacramental Confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for Confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible. (Code of Canon Law, canon 916) Frequent reception of the Sacrament of Confession is encouraged for all of the faithful.

Those not receiving Sacramental Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Chrism Mass
